

INSURANCE

Reference: CAP Regulation 900-5

1. As member of Civil Air Patrol, the individual is covered by aviation, auto and general - liability insurance while performing Civil Air Patrol activities. The individual is also eligible for federal liability protection and employee's compensation (including disability and survivors benefits) while on Air Force sanctioned missions.
2. For in-depth information on insurance coverage, read the reference directive.